

Franklin County Mental Health and Addiction Crisis Center

Small Emerging Business Enterprise (SEBE)

In-Person Outreach

Pre-Qualification Application Sessions

The Alcohol, Drug and Mental Health Board of Franklin County (ADAMH) is partnering with community stakeholders to address the continuum of crisis care in our community. The cornerstone of this continuum is the development of a new crisis center that will be the central and preferred destination in Franklin County for mental health and addiction crisis needs.

11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Only 25 slots available per session

July 5: Register | July 12: Register

Small businesses need only register for one session.

Plan to attend an upcoming outreach event to learn about completing and submitting the contractor prequalification application (see attached) for Small Emerging Business Enterprises (SEBE) participation on this construction project Fall 2022.
